

Dr OFER CARMI – Water Quality and Security Director, HAGIHON LTD. The Jerusalem water & sewage company.

Dr OFER CARMI holds a D.Sc. in Microbiology and molecular biology (Technion-Israel Institute of Technology) and is the water quality and security director in Hagihon.

Dr CARMI is the Head of Hagihon laboratory authorized by the Ministry of Health and accredited by the Israel Laboratory Accreditation Authority for drinking water quality tests. Dr CARMI is a member of drinking water standards committees as ISO, The Standards Institution of Israel, and the Israeli Water and Health Authority. He is initiator and leader of water quality monitoring projects.

Dr CARMI main expertise include water quality monitoring and security of municipal distribution system including different types of closed reservoir (volumes, shapes), classic and on line monitoring systems for monitoring water quality, and experience in establishment of beta sites for checking different instruments/systems of water quality monitoring and security.